

Vincent Curulli

March 26, 1935 - April 22, 2025

Vincent Curulli, 90, of Eltingville, Staten Island, passed away April 22, 2025.

Born in Brooklyn, New York on March 26, 1935 to parents Vincent and Genevieve Curulli (both deceased). Vincent attended William E Grady High School. Vincent, while growing up, loved to play baseball with his friends and was asked to play professionally, but unfortunately he needed to stay behind and help his parents at the time. Vincent married Minnie Curulli (nee Priola) June 30, 1962 and were married for 62 years. They moved to Staten Island April, 1984. Vincent and Minnie had 3 children Jeanne Adams (nee Curulli), Vincent Curulli, and Joanna Carlson (nee Curulli). Vincent was a loving husband and father but nothing made him happier than when he became a grandfather to Dominique, John, Matthew Carlson (deceased), Vincent and Nicholas Curulli.

Mr. Curulli worked as an MTA bus driver for many years until he was elected as Shop Steward at Ulmer Park Depot and promoted to Union Organizer for the TWU. He was a lifelong member of the Knights of Columbus.

Vincent is survived by his wife Minnie children Jeanne Adams, Vincent Curulli, Joanna Carlson, Son in Laws John Carlson and Alex Adams. Grandchildren Dominique and John Carlson and Vincent and Nicholas Curulli and John. He was predeceased by his grandsons Matthew Carlson and Joseph.

“ I worked with Vinnie for many years at the Great Kills Friendship Club-- He was a wonderful man- He sat across from me with a hoodie pulled over his head because he said it was like Alaska in the office. Always made me laugh. May he Rest in Peace.
