“ Whenever Mom and I ran into Jimmy (usually at Shoprite) he was always joking and making Mommy laugh her head off. And, Jim, even though some of your jokes were corny, you always had our full attention and we just couldn't help but laugh and enjoy our little meeting in the supermarket. May you rest in peace and continue to tell your jokes to the angels. With love, Helene and Colette

“ Watching Jimmy, Alan and Michael walking down Nostrand Ave not knowing him but knew of him and thought he was so gorgeous. Getting yelled at 1:00 PM for waking him up (who calls at this time of the day)!
I got scared and hung up.
The scar that Alan had on his far head. They were horsing around in the living room. (They told their Mom that he tripped over Chris’s ball)
Always goofing about my cooking.
Making Alan promise he would cook dinner again when he came this Christmas. 😞
Fun times we shared at holidays and family occasions.
Always caring and concerned about us. While he was suffering beyond belief. His last words to Alan were “ you better get to the dr.”
He was the strongest person I know and probably will ever know.
RIP my brother.
Love you forever ❤️

“ *I am lost for words for my friend.
The hours we shared at my kitchen table drinking coffee and debating the world will always be special to me.
You remain in my heart as someone who gave me joy and laughter... a gift not many possess.
Sleep Well now, the Angels hold you.

“ *There are so many special memories I associate with you from Christmas Eve celebrations to all other family events and celebrations. My personal memories are of you teaching me to ride a bike, running up and down Argyle Place making sure I felt safe, thanks for that memory. I also remember you teaching me how to do the box step when I needed to learn how to dance at a party. I love you and will always cherish all of the special memories we shared. You will be missed, but will always hold a special spot in my heart and memories.
Love your cousin, Sharon*
