“ Thoughts and prayers for the Ponzio family today. Paul and I lit a candle in church on Sunday for Vinny and the peace of Jesus sent to his family. He was a wonderful person and was always good to me and my family. Love, Lucille

“ All too well I have learned that grief taught me that love does not end when someone dies. I will always remember my brother Vinnie, the way he lived, the people he loved, and the mark he left on me. Rest easy my brother, you deserve it. Vinnie was a selfless person. He helped everyone. He showed up when people needed him. He put others first and had a quiet strength and a generous heart. I hope he will be still picking his favorites, studying the odds, and placing bets. I wish he is somewhere peaceful, smiling and watching a perfect race where every horse runs strong and free and thinking of him in heaven following the races will comfort me and make me smile. A piece of my heart lives in heaven now. I will carry you with me always, until we meet again brother,

“ Vinny was probably the classiest man I ever knew. He was part of my family through marriage, but I always felt like he was my family. I knew if I ever needed him, he would be there. He was always kind, respectful and a gentleman to my parents, who adored him. We all thought the world of him. He was a good man. He will be greatly missed.

My heart is broken withis news. I am praying for Terry & the family. I feel I've known Vinny all my life. We were classmates & friends growing up. Our schooldays at Lefferts JHS will bring me such great memories of the fun & laughter we always shared. Vinny was another brother to me and knew allmy family as I knew his. Vinny was one of the most handsome giys in Pigtown and I was always so happy to see him & Terry at the reunions. Now when I think of him, I will remember the walk with Maryann Caputo, Ramona Casanova heading to ENY Avenue & Brooklyn Ave to the corner house to pick him up each morning along with Nicky Ciccone. Those 3 years were filled with mirth. This is the VINNY I will remember! Godspeed my dear, dear friend, I will love you forever. I'll always be happy knowing he found the woman of his dreams. Thank you Terry for making him a happy man!
