

Warren R. Johnsen

October 5, 1954 - October 22, 2015

Warren Johnsen, 61, of Eltingville, an electrician and business owner who adored his family and was known as a true gentleman, died Thursday, October 22, 2015 in Memorial Sloan-Kettering Hospital, Manhattan, from complications of cancer.

Born in Brooklyn, he grew up in Prince's Bay and settled in Eltingville in 1980.

He graduated from Tottenville High School.

Mr. Johnsen was an electrician and a member of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local 3. In 1992, he took over Johnson Brothers Electric, a longtime family-owned business in Grasmere.

He was a member of the South Shore Swim Club.

Mr. Johnsen rooted for the New York Rangers, football Giants and enjoyed fishing and running. But, his favorite passion was his family.

"He was a skilled craftsman." "I was fortunate to have called him my friend, he was the best man that I ever knew," said his longtime friend, Tom Delese.

Described as hard-working, generous and giving, he lived life to the fullest and lived by the credo "Live, love and laugh." He was a good man who was a loving husband and father, and will be deeply missed by all who knew him, his family said.

He had a good sense of humor and was known for being kind, caring and respectful to others. He had the ability to make people feel special, they said.

Beloved husband of Kathleen. Loving father of Shannon Bland and Craig and Patrick. Cherished son of Sylvia and the late Raymond. Fond father-in-law of J. Nathan Bland, and Jamie and Gina. Dear brother of Richard, Ronald, Mark and David. Devoted grandfather of Shiloh, Ryan, Jove and James.

Kathy..I am so sorry for your loss. Warren was such a great guy. He always had a smile on his face. You two were truly a blessed couple. I'm so sorry I was not able to pay my respects, but my father just passed away and I'm staying in NJ with my mom in preparation for my dad's wake and funeral. I am praying for you and your children. God bless Warren, may he rest in peace.
Love, Deirdre
