

Winfield "Junior" E. Rand Jr.

September 21, 1957 - November 28, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Junior Rand, 68, of Staten Island, New York, who left us on November 28th, 2025.

A devoted husband, father, grandfather, and friend, Junior lived a life defined by love, laughter, and unwavering loyalty to his family. Raised in Staten Island, Junior built a proud career as a member of the scaffolding carpenters union. His hands were never idle—when he wasn't hard at work, he could often be found under the hood of a car or outside perfecting his lawn, tasks he approached with the same care and pride he brought to every part of his life.

Junior's greatest accomplishment was, without question, his family. He loved his children loudly, fiercely, and without condition, placing them on the highest pedestal. His sense of humor was legendary; there was no moment too dark for him to brighten, no situation he couldn't turn around with a perfectly timed joke. He was a natural storyteller, bringing memories from his past to life with such vivid detail that you felt as though you were living them alongside him.

At heart, Junior was a giant kid—playful, warm, and endlessly generous. His grandchildren adored him, and he delighted in gathering them around, bribing them with their favorite sweet treats, and making them giggle with his larger-than-life personality. He never met a stranger; personable and outgoing, he could make a friend anywhere he went. Junior lived boldly, grabbing life by the horns and making the most of every moment.

He is survived by his loving wife, Karen, his cherished children Michael and Frances, Patrick and Michelle, Kristilyn and Erik, and six beloved grandchildren, all of whom will forever carry his spirit, humor, and love in their hearts.

He is preceded in death by his beloved daughter Charise

Visiting will be at the John Vincent Scalia Home, For Funerals and Cremation Services, located at 28 Eltingville Blvd, Staten Island, NY 10312, on Wednesday, December 3rd, from 2–4 p.m. and 7–9 p.m. where family and friends are invited to gather in remembrance of a man who brought joy to every life he touched.
