“ To my very best friend Winnie,

You are the greatest person and the very best friend that anyone could ever hope for. God was so good to me 50 years ago when I met you. You have been such an inspiration to me and I turned to you every day of my life for your warmth, encouragement and advice. We had a special bond and we knew we could turn to each other for comfort in any situation and share our joys and happiness and even our concerns and hardships. We shared many good times and laughs together and you would always have the power to turn a bad problem into something that we could laugh at together. You were blessed with four wonderful children and five beautiful grandchildren whom you always talked about with love. I will miss our daily chats especially when we joked about our children being the parents and us being the children. I can't imagine life without you. As I sit here writing this I am heartbroken. Thanks for all the wonderful memories. Until we meet again, I will love you and miss you forever. Love Julie.
