*It was so nice coming to visit with you Bui Goo
We had a great time catching up & talking about the "good old days"
And I must say, you enjoyed everything on your plate
And still had room for dessert 😊😊😊*

“ Aunt Helen my Bui Goo

*We spent so much happy times together through the years
On weekends and holidays be it by our house or your house, creating many memories and always bringing special favorite dishes to the table to share exchanging recipes*

*Of course there was always the game of mah jong afterwards & the cousins would run around the house turning it upside down
Just like they're supposed to do...Lol*

Miss you dearly Bui Goo

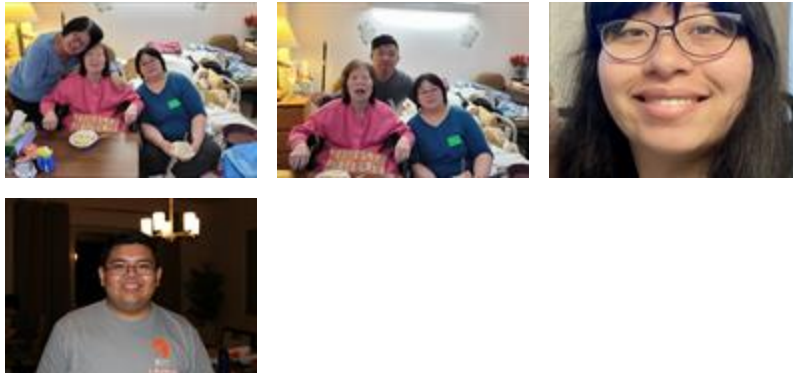

❤️ Niece Cindy

“ In Loving Memory Of Yulha Helen Lau, born February 24th, 1936, Canton, Republic of China. A mother of 5: Linda, Edward, Stanley, Laura & Laurie. And Grandmother of 4 grandchildren who will deeply miss their Por Por. Loving Grandchildren are Connie, Patrick, Louis & Lauren.

Helen Lau a loving grandmother who is always making Lo-Bok Tee, Zongzi and her delicious salmon head recipe for her grandchildren Connie & Patrick. She always knew to make separate batches of Zongzi for her grandson Patrick without peanuts, because Patrick has a peanut allergy.

On one occasion, Por Por made the zongzi batch for everyone, however it wasn't evenly distributed, there was always a surprise in the zongzi. My mum Linda once got a plain zongzi with no filling, as to Patrick who had received more filling than anyone else, which made my sister Connie very upset.

Por Por was known to have a green thumb and taught my sister how to care for flowers and beautiful jasmine plant for 20 plus years.

We Will Miss You, Por Por!
